Corto Maltese

Vol. 13 Sous le soleil de minuit

A faithful and modern rerun of a contemporary legend. Pellejero takes over all graphical codes of Hugo Pratt while adding his own personality to the story through the landscapes, the secondary characters and the colouring. The new scenario imagined by Canales reuses all of Pratt's important stories characteristics (treasure hunt, genuine historical facts, loyalty towards friends, etc.) The powerful dialogues will delight the fans as much as they will appeal to the uninitiated.

After more than 20 years, Hugo Pratt's hero is back !

“Le feuilleton Intégral” is the opportunity to rediscover Hergé’s complete work in its original version published as a series in the newspapers (Tintin, Jo, Zette et Jocko, Quick et Flupke and many other masterpieces). During this time period, Hergé created the Studios Hergé and changed his working methods. From the spatial conquest (On a marché sur la Lune, Objectif Lune) to Cold War (L’Affaire Tournesol) or modern slavery (Coke en stock), his heroes always preceded the news of their time.

Temporary cover

Based on the essay “de la démocratie en Amérique” by French philosopher Alexis de Tocqueville, this title tells us his discovery of America. Together with his friend, Gustave de Beaumont, they take a trip to the Great Lakes region looking for the limits of Western Civilisation.

Between the endangered Indian People and the White Men moving through the New World, from wild forests to intense urbanisation, they're depicting America of the pioneers.

On an island, inhabited only by apes, a prophet lands from the skies to teach the population how to create a new faith. Tinted with humor and cynicism, this book is an off-beat critic of all religious systems in place nowadays.

Zeina Abirached

Le Piano Oriental

In the oriental piano, Zeina Abirached writes and draws about her grand-father. He worked as a civil servant or, at least, he pretended to as he spent all his working time on inventing a very special piano. She captures Lebanon in peace in the 60's, before the civil war torn apart the country for two decades. A poetic metaphor for the encounter of two cultures.

Louise Brooks was the symbol of the Flappers. With her bob haircut, she broke many hearts and opened a new path in feminism.

Hurt and molested from the earliest age, her mother never fully accepted her, thus causing her never-ending feeling of failure and her need to rush forward.

Her bad-temper and relationship to men forced her to leave the studios very early, so she had a brief career and was almost forgotten, until the New Wave turn her into the icon she is today.

Catel / Bocquet Joséphine Baker

Born in Mississippi, Joséphine Baker is 20-years-old when she moves to Paris in 1925. In one night, this young dancer becomes the idol of the roaring twenties. Tinted with scandal, she becomes the first world-known black celebrity. In 1939, she acquires French nationality and joins the resistance during the War. In the 50's, she adopts 12 children from different nationalities and raises them as her "Rainbow Tribe". In 1968, she finds herself bankrupt, but manages to save her family thanks to the help of Brigitte Bardot and Grace Kelly. In 1975, she dies right after her triumphal comeback in Paris.

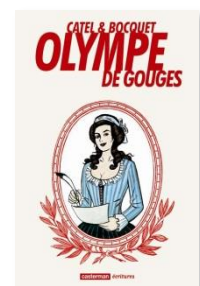

Between glamour and humanism, this graphic novel tells the tumultuous life of the first world-known black celebrity.

L'odeur des garçons affamés

We're following 3 main characters in their expedition through Texas in 1872: Stingley, geologist, his young assistant Milton, and Oscar, a photographer who's helping him identify Western landscapes. While an ambiguous relationship develops between Oscar and Milton, they quickly realize that they're being followed. Stingley has indeed taken them to a dangerous territory: the Comanches. This western-style comic book takes us to a distant border where the limits between civilisation and savagery slowly fade away...

We are the witnesses of the terrible destruction of a part of Marseille, city in Southern France. It seems to be caused by an earthquake, but is it really ? We're following 4 characters : a policeman, a nurse, a psychologist and an agent of a funeral parlour in their intervention to the victims. This story tells us about the sanitary, human and political consequences of this disaster in a troubled city.

What would you do if you were facing the same situation ?

Le bonheur occidental

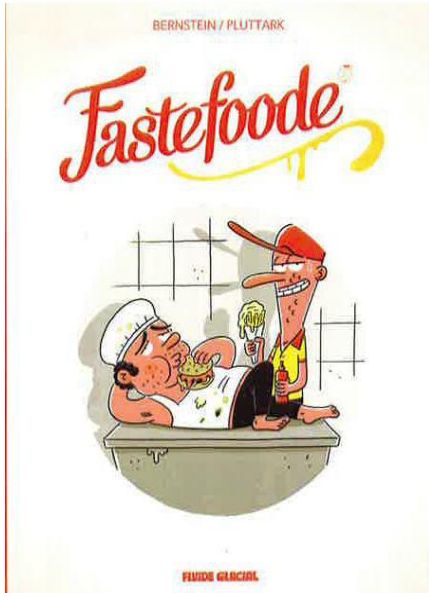

Technical Specifications :

- Format : 229 x 293
- 96 pages
- Colours
- Public retail price : 17 €

In this very personal, funny, rich, and sometimes sad collection of stories, Berberian is taking us into his own life. He's depicting himself as a bobo author. This book is a patchwork of scenes between autofiction, beautiful full-page illustrations, news from around the world, but also stories about our very-often-powerless political leaders, and ending with the attacks in Paris in November 2015... This work is a disillusioned and ironic vision of our society.
